

Dear Friends,

You are cordially invited to help with a transformative new project! The Waldorf School of Louisville is pleased to announce our annual Spring Gala and Auction Fundraiser in support of our Rewilding Rock Creek Project, on Friday, May 19th!

In 2021, The Waldorf School left its long-time home in Lyndon. The new Rock Creek Campus, adjoining Seneca Park, while significantly bigger, lacked the old rustic play yards full of climbing trees, extensive cultivated garden spaces, and colorful pollinator beds, lovingly tended by 30 years worth of little hands.

It just isn't a Waldorf School without some dirt and a little magic... so we formed a bold plan to 'unmake' the beds at our new campus! The manicured lawn had to go! The unclimbable, decorative boxwoods... those had to go too! In their place, we envisioned a multi-acre beneficial, edible landscape that we playfully called the Rewilding of Rock Creek.

The Rewilding will remove invasive and non-native landscaping plants and replace them with biodynamic garden spaces for herbs, fruit trees, native pollinator plants, and vegetables. We're planting trees, getting bees, and generally making the children's outdoor spaces as wild as they are!

As we're new to this campus, we have much work ahead of us to create the kind of reclaimed natural spaces we envision. Most importantly, our students will be researching, planting, nurturing, harvesting, and exploring together in a supportive and thriving community (and learning a little horticulture, biology, botany, practical math and chemistry along the way).

We invite you to join us in supporting our campus wide transformation, which will kick off at our Woodland Wonderland Spring Auction & Gala this May!

You can support Waldorf through a gift to the Silent Auction, by volunteering on the Committee, or becoming an Event Sponsor, and by celebrating with us on May 19th!

We hope that you will feel inspired to join us in keeping our children wild and free at heart, through the transformative power of the natural world.

Wildly yours,

2023 Auction Chair
